

Christine Edison is our Artist-in-Residence during the Ocean Beast exhibition, July - August 2012.

She is a math teacher and origami artist based in Chicago. She blogs about her origami and other interests at HYPERLINK "http://cedison.wordpress.com/"cedison.wordpress.com

Monday - Friday, 11 am- 2 pm, from July 23 - August 24, 2012, Christine will be offering workshops in the Simons Center Gallery.

Workshops :

“Compression and Rotational Limitations of Curved Corrugations”

Monday : Curving a traditional Masu box basics
Tuesday : Bauhaus Circles
Wednesday: Single curves folding
Thursday : Curving a traditional Masu box-extended variations
Friday : Bauhaus circles

On August 16 Christine will give a talk at 5:30 pm at the Simons Center.

All events are free and open to the public.