

Leon Livshin is a prolific pianist who has won top prizes at prestigious piano competitions in Italy, Germany, and the former USSR. He has performed extensively throughout Europe and the US, and also acts as creative consultant to a variety of concert series and festivals in the NYC area. As a soloist and chamber music player, Mr. Livshin has performed at Carnegie Weill Hall, Alice Tully Hall, the Kennedy Center, Merkin Hall, Steinway Hall, the Cologne Philharmonic, the Berlin Hochschule für Musik, Vienna Konzerthaus, the Zurich Tonhalle, and Moscow's White Hall. Recent collaborations include the Borodin Quartet, the Borromeo Quartet, Philip Setzer, Russian New Quartet, Dmitri Berlinsky, and Colin Carr.